Have you ever realized that making quilt block patterns can be one of the most enjoyable and easy ways to use your old scrappy quilt patterns? That's why the nifty design of the Stacks & Stacks of Scraps Quilt Block is a fantastic project to make if you have tons of multicolored scrap quilt fabric from previous quilting projects. Not only is this one of the easiest quilt patterns for beginner quilters, but the seemingly overlapping design of this block can be completed in less than an hour. In addition, you can make this free quilt block extra unique by using fabric made of different materials to achieve a cool mixed media look.

Step 1:

- Dump out your scraps and choose your favorites.
- Cut your scraps into various widths and lengths. Do not worry about cutting your scraps to an exact width. All of my strips vary in width from 1" to 2 1/2". I did cut my strips to a length of at least 5-6".
